Clear Space & Minimum Size

In order to achieve a consistent and clean look and feel we need to take note of some easy to follow principles: clear space and minimum space. This will ensure to create a brand expression that appears contemporary and professional.

The exclusion zone for our brandmark is defined with the width and height of the ‘F’ in our mark.

To avoid problems with printing limitations and in order to keep our expression clearly recognisable, please don’t use our mark smaller than 15 mm in width

Brand Pattern

The SHF brand pattern is inspired by the values we stand for—structure, harmony, and growth. Built from modular geometric elements, the pattern represents interconnected homes and communities, reflecting our core purpose: enabling people to build stable, secure lives through home ownership.

Its repetition and balance convey reliability and consistency, while the subtle curves symbolize empathy and flexibility. Whether used in backgrounds, stationery, or digital interfaces, the brand pattern enhances visual identity without overwhelming core content—serving as a quiet yet powerful reminder of SHF's promise of trust, collaboration, and long-term impact.
